What's the one piece of technology that MOST helps you get through your normal workday?

"I would have to say that my laptop is the one piece of technology that most helps me get through my day. A close second is my Motorola Q phone. I have it set up so that all of my e-mails, contacts and calendar are available on there, and I must admit that I am addicted!"

What will be the biggest change over the next five years in the ways tax and accounting firms operate?

"Over the next five years, I anticipate that accounting firms will continue seeking ways to offer their employees greater work-life balance. I believe that technology will play a key role in this change, as the improvement and implementation of technology will allow workers to work from home, conduct virtual meetings, etc."
