POTOMAC, MD —BizActions, the nation's leading provider of electronic newsletters for Certified Public Accountants, announced today that it is sponsoring the first RootWorks Leadership Community held in Indianapolis, Indiana. Lead by M. Darren Root, RootWorks managing partner, Leadership Communities are exclusive peer networking forums designed to foster knowledge sharing and promote best practices among future-thinking CPA firms. Adding to an already rich content base, vendors not only sponsor Communities, they play an active role in discussions and offer relevant, highly informational presentations.

“RootWorks Leadership Communities present a golden opportunity to speak directly with firm leaders to gauge their needs and get a feel for where the profession is headed in regards to best practices and technology,” stated Barry Friedman, CEO at BizActions. “I am honored to be among the impressive line-up of technology and services vendors.”

“We were very happy when BizActions joined our list of sponsors,” stated Darren Root. “BizActions brings leading e-newsletter and compliance technology to the table—two very important items for today's CPA firms. BizActions certainly enhances our list of high-end technology vendors.”

The first RootWorks Leadership Community takes place May 13-14, 2009, in Indianapolis.

BizActions CEO, Barry Friedman will offer an in-depth look into IRC 7216 and how BizActions Compliance Center technology can help CPAs easily manage tasks associated with the Code's complex Disclosure and Use rules.
