cities across the country (Starting in the Bay Area on July 20) specifically geared toward helping accounting firms find the best technologies, how to implement them, security concerns, best practices, and other ways to get the most of the time saving and productivity-boosting benefits. The Sleeter Group (www.sleeter.com) is headed by Doug Sleeter, who writes a column for The CPA Technology Advisor. He will be joined in giving the seminars by our Executive Editor Darren Root, CPA.CITP.

We are giving away a free registration to the Bay Area full-day seminar "Taking Your Clients Online." Go to www.cpatechadvisor.com/sleeteronline to register, and for more information on the seminar. Regular pricing for the event starts at $129 for early-bird registers, including a continental breakfast.

The seminar will be offered later in the summer in Chicago, Dallas, Atlanta and Los Angeles.

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.
