Have you ever met anyone who PRINTED OUT their Facebook wall to read the postings?

When I was at the gym this morning, I was amazed, yet again. Most mornings you can find me there, and as a trained journalist, I know I have a habit of observing those around me.

There is a older gentleman (60ish) there every morning, too, who regularly works out on the treadmill and the bicycle. Now there's nothing remarkable about that, certainly, but what I always found fascinating is his reading material. He prints out stories from the Internet via the Washington Post or The New York Times and reads them while exercising.
