Going on Vacation? Take Us Along With You

(Registration required to view this article.)

Tax season may just be starting, but if you're one of the many professionals who takes a well-earned vacation after filing the last of your client returns and extensions, now's the perfect time to plan it, since it'll give you something to look forward to as you work late into those March and April nights.

Take CPA Practice Advisor with you, and you'll have something else to look forward to:

A chance to win a $1,500 travel voucher for your next trip.

Contest Entry Link Below – Deadline: May 31, 2012

Whether you're heading to sun-drenched beaches, the mountains, flying abroad, cruising the sea, heading to Disney World or any other vacation destination local or far (even your backyard), remember to pack the latest issue of CPA Practice Advisor or NSA Practice Advisor, or check us out online for the latest reviews, columns and features on your tablet device.

Send in a picture of yourself holding your magazine or a tablet device showing the www.CPAPracticeAdvisor.com website, and then add some general information, and you'll be entered to win a $1,500 travel voucher. Submitted photos may be used in the magazine, in our digital version, on our website or promoted via social media. Individuals submitting photos may also be selected to be profiled in a feature article.

Tax season won't last forever, so make your travel plans soon... and remember:
