announced major enhancements to the system. Among the long list of upgrades are a new user interface and built-in CPE-certified courses. Other powerful new features were implemented based on user feedback and the company's focus on offering a solution that supports better year-round service to a firm's clients.

Core enhancements to the current release of Beyond415 include:

Three free CPE credits with NASBA-certified courses on post-filing IRS practice and procedure.

Free IRS Reference Account that features a comprehensive IRS contact directory and unlimited access to the Expert Community.

Significantly enhanced user interface, including quick search navigation.

Online practitioner community where users can exchange information and share issues and resolutions.

Additional issue support, including an IRS Audit section complete with hundreds of working papers.

The new version of Beyond415 truly represents a major release, offering big improvements to elevate ease of use and providing practitioners with the tools needed to better serve their clients with post-filing issues. Considering the depth and breadth of changes, it looks to be a homerun.
