local tax rates and rules for various telecom and media-related products and services for all areas where companies do business. This makes it easier for companies specializing in voice-over Internet protocol, wireless and mobile technology, local and long-distance access charges, pre-paid phone cards, digital goods and bundled services to provide accurate billing, reporting, and tax compliance.

“SureTax Telecom was designed from the ground up with input from telecom industry leaders,” said SureTax President and industry expert Mike Sanders. “By aligning SureTax with CCH’s premier content, CorpSystem SureTax Telecom brings two market-leading resources together in a single solution.
