

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Michigan.

Taija Sparkman • Apr. 24, 2012

Bill.com, provider of integrated bill payment, online invoicing and cash flow management solutions, announced its recent partnership with Mercantile Bank of Michigan. The financial institution is the first to employ Bill.com's platform, providing streamlined banking services for its customers.

"At Mercantile Bank of Michigan, we are always looking for innovative and secure ways to help our customers manage their businesses more effectively," said John Schulte, Senior Vice President/CIO, Mercantile Bank of Michigan. "By partnering with Bill.com, we are able to provide our business customers with long-term added value by giving them authenticated access to Bill.com's suite of banking services in a centralized hub."

With Bill.com's platform, Mercantile Bank of Michigan customers have the ability to automate manual processes and work with various vendor and customer networks right from the Bill.com platform. Other features of the solution include multiple payment channels to send and receive payments, a comprehensive cash flow

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us banking. By logging onto Mercantile Bank of Michigan's website, we can focus on what we do best as a landscaping materials supplier, which is to service our customers rather than spend countless hours on cash management."

Bill.com offers several options for financial institutions looking to integrate their current online banking solutions. Options include bank branding customization options, SSO and seamless on-boarding.

"Our partnership with Mercantile Bank of Michigan reiterates the importance of providing their customers with a single platform to seamlessly manage all financial transactions within one system," said René Lacerte, CEO and founder of Bill.com.

"We are confident there is no other platform in the market that is more complete or is as easy to use as ours, and we encourage other financial institutions to take a closer look at what Mercantile Bank of Michigan is doing to benefit their customers."

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved