BNA Income Tax Planner software.

Taija Sparkman • May. 01, 2012

BNA Software, a Bloomberg BNA business, recently launched a web version of its BNA Income Tax Planner software.

BNA Income Tax Planner Web will give users the ability to search, store and share client notes and files. System administrators will have the ability to track and monitor user access and usage, controlling unauthorized access. In addition, BNA Income Tax Planner Web is supported by ISO 27001 certified facilities and features SSL v.3.0 encryption.

“The new SaaS version of our tax planning software enables tax and accounting professionals to provide seamless services and access the latest BNA Income Tax Planner version anywhere, anytime from most browser-enabled computers,” said Dean Sonderegger, Executive Director of Product Management, BNA Software. “As many accounting and tax professionals have begun taking advantage of the benefits offered by cloud computing, we wanted to ensure our clients would have the right solution for their individual business needs.”

CPA Practice Advisor awarded BNA Income Tax Planner a five-star rating.
