Weaver, an independent accounting firm and member firm of Baker Tilly International, recently announced it has chosen Deltek, Inc., global provider of enterprise software and information solutions, to provide an integrated financial, practice management and staff scheduling solution.

Deltek Maconomy will support Weaver's accelerating growth by offering the firm better financial visibility and a platform to manage performance and growth across the organization.

"We selected Deltek Maconomy because it is a fully integrated financial management solution and because of Deltek's strong background in professional services, particularly among accounting firms. Deltek will deliver the visibility we need to help improve client acquisition and retention and provide the control necessary to ensure services are delivered on time and on budget," said Jayna Bovre, Partner at Weaver. "We were also impressed by Deltek Maconomy's ability to scale in an environment that included multiple business lines and office locations. Using Maconomy to unify our growing organization is a vital component of our expansion strategy."

With Deltek Maconomy, Weaver will be able perform the following tasks within the
