young professionals looking to get started in accounting, and we are proud to be a partner with CollegeFrog, helping to build and sustain relationships to ensure a prosperous future.”

Colleges across the nation host Meet the Firms events on campus, allowing students to interact with local hiring firms in person. However, most firms cannot afford to recruit at multiple campuses in their area, and students want more exposure to more employment opportunities. This virtual, multi-day, national event was created to alleviate these challenges faced during the recruiting process and to increase exposure of students to these firms.

Students and firms alike are encouraged to visit www.meetthefirmsweek.com and create a profile. When the event kicks off on October 29, each participating firm will gain access to all student profiles in their state of operation.

Sage will cosponsor this event with other industry leaders, providing Sage 50 Accounting 2013—U.S. Edition product certification to participating students and a discounted membership rate to the Sage Accountants Network of $199 for the first year to participating firms.
