

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Taija Sparkman • Oct. 18, 2012

CCH, a Wolters Kluwer business, has released a new publication aimed at providing guidance for conducting Housing and Urban Development audits. Knowledge-Based Audit Methodology: HUD Programs, based on CCH's Knowledge-Based Audit

methodology, gives direction for complying with the AICPA's new clarified auditing

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us professionals who perform HUD and low-income housing audits. The publication focuses on financial statement guidance and compliance requirements.

The release of the KBA HUD title follows the recent release of Knowledge-Based Audits of Commercial Entities. CCH is also planning to release additional titles covering industries impacted by AICPA clarity standards. The new auditing standards are effective for financial periods ending on or after December 15, 2012.

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved