

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us money successfully through the FETCH! program.

Isaac M. O'Bannon • Nov. 14, 2012

What's round on both ends and teaches financial basics to kids? Ohio CPAs.

This Friday (Nov. 16, 2012), members of the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants will go to elementary schools across Ohio to help students understand how to use and manage money successfully through the FETCH! program.

FETCH!, which stands for Financial Education Teaches Children Healthy Habits, was created and implemented by The Ohio CPA Foundation in 2010 to provide a platform for CPAs to share their financial knowledge and expertise to teach students basic financial literacy concepts like budgeting, saving and spending.

To date, 2,300 volunteers have presented FETCH! to nearly 20,000 students in over

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us plan ahead to avoid fines imposed by the Dog Catcher.

Through teamwork, strategy and competition, FETCH! teaches children important financial concepts that are the foundation of a healthy financial future.

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved