CCH, a Wolters Kluwer business, has released a free version of its Fiscal Cliff Estimator to allow everyone to view the possible impacts of the various tax plans currently being debated in Congress. CCH is a global provider of tax, accounting and audit information, software and services for tax, accounting and business professionals.

The Fiscal Cliff Estimator, previously only available to IntelliConnect users, compares a taxpayer's tax liability for 2012 against the pending tax packages, such as tax proposals from the White House and Congress and the possible extension or expiration of the Bush-era tax cuts. The Estimator is available via IntelliConnect and CCH Mobile, as well as CCH's website.
