Robert Half International, the world's first and largest specialized staffing firm, and leading financial close software provider BlackLine Systems have signed a new strategic alliance. Through the agreement, Robert Half will work with BlackLine to provide professionals certified to implement the BlackLine Financial Close Software Suite.

The business alliance expands a pre-existing successful relationship that Protiviti Inc., a Robert Half subsidiary, has had with BlackLine since February 2010. Protiviti helps companies solve problems in finance, technology, operations, governance, risk and internal audit.

The expanded effort is expected to deliver even greater benefits to clients of Robert Half, Protiviti and BlackLine by leveraging staffing project professionals from Robert Half and consulting and finance transformation expertise from global consulting firm Protiviti.

Companies will benefit by closing the books faster and more effectively and by having a scalable infrastructure to support future growth.

Robert Half will provide to businesses BlackLine-Certified Implementation Professionals, who have undergone a rigorous training course provided by BlackLine. These BlackLine-certified professionals are available now through Robert Half in major metropolitan markets throughout North America.

BlackLine develops software applications that automate the financial close process, improving and optimizing processes that were formerly manual and spreadsheet-driven.

“We are seeing demand from our clients to close their books more quickly,” said Paul
