BMRG Group Advisory Program has announced that Office Tools Professional, provider of practice management software for accounting, tax and bookkeeping offices, will be one of its Silver Sponsors for 2013. BMRG GAP, founded by Jennifer Katrulya, CPA.CITP, CGMA, is a consultancy, which provides collaborative education, and advisory services for firms.

“We know CPAs and accountants are always looking for ways to make technology work the way they want it to work, so our sponsorship with BMRG GAP provides us a way to inform and educate their members about improving a firm’s practice management, time & billing and other processes,” said Michael Giardina, CEO, Office Tools Professional.

Office Tools Professional was recently awarded their third consecutive Readers’ Choice Award in Workflow and last month, Giardina presented at the 2013 Thought Leader Symposium in Dallas. During the presentation, he emphasized the importance of finding the right workflow technology to help firms increase productivity, efficiency and work-life balance.

“Office Tools Professional and its programs are a great addition to our entire suite of technology and tools we are promoting to BMRG GAP members,” said Katrulya.

“Michael truly understands what accountants need to be able to succeed in their own firms and with their clients to maximize time and remain as efficient as possible.”
