Integrate credit card transactions.

Transactions by company spenders are collected automatically and securely, allowing Tallie to double check the expense amounts and ensure no transactions are missed.

- Supports thousands of credit cards simultaneously
- Pulls transactions from both personal & corporate credit cards
- Allows you to easily manage which cards and transactions are imported

Let Tallie match and categorize.

Ever find yourself wishing that an expense report could take care of itself? Tallie's smart algorithms can help.

Automatic Matching

Receipt & credit card transactions are automatically paired-up based on matching merchant, date & amount values.

Machine Learning

If an expense type allocation is changed for a transaction, Tallie learns and intelligently recategorizes similar future transactions.

Account, track & analyze.
