2013 Innovation Awards Nominee:

DisclosureNet Mobile

www.Disclosurenet.com

DisclosureNet Mobile for iPad brings the powerful disclosure and financial reporting standards research capabilities of DisclosureNet to tax and accounting professionals who are on the go. DisclosureNet has a database of 20+ million public filings from the U.S., Canada, Australia and annual reports from the UK, representing 44% of the world's market capitalization. Current clients include the Big Four firms and numerous other large and medium-sized accounting organizations.

With automated alerts, DisclosureNet removes the manual labor from keeping on top of standards and regulations, and through its powerful search capabilities makes it simple to find examples of financial disclosures, conduct due diligence and research best practices in reporting.

DisclosureNet Mobile for iPad users enjoy access to the entire database of disclosure filings as well as the standards, rules and regulations that govern financial reporting processes of organizations worldwide. Some of the app's capabilities include:

- Full library of US GAAP, IFRS and other FASB content. Users can browse specific regulations and from these documents, directly access recent examples of financial reports filed under these standards.
- Powerful Boolean/proximity searching capabilities to pinpoint filings meeting one or many criteria such as document type, company or filing date/period.
- Documents are full-text searchable, so hit-highlights help users navigate easily to find what they need quickly.

- Documents returned from searches or alerts can be saved for offline reading.
