By partnering together, Xero and ZenPayroll continue their commitment to providing small business owners a complete end-to-end IT solution – and access to their finances anytime, anywhere, on any device. Real-time access means smarter financial decisions and a better bottom line.

“Small Business owners do it all – CEO, HR manager, IT support – concurrently tracking money coming in and money going out,” said Jamie Sutherland Xero President of U.S. Operations. “Accounting and payroll go hand-in-hand, which is why finding the right partners is so important. In ZenPayroll, we found a company that truly saw the value of a simple, intuitive, and scalable financial solution.”

With ZenPayroll, customers no longer have to manually enter their payroll data, saving them time and eliminating the possibility of human error. Accountants are able to manage payroll for dozens of companies from a free, easy to use centralized dashboard and the automated, paperless functionality of Xero and ZenPayroll make it easy for small businesses to stay in compliance with government regulations and taxes.

“Our mission at ZenPayroll is to bring the power of modern software to the payroll industry, and offer a much simpler, faster and easier to use product than has ever existed before. When we met Xero, it was clear to us that they shared this philosophy. With this partnership, small business owners and their advisors can now seamlessly manage payroll and accounting in the cloud,” said Joshua Reeves, CEO of ZenPayroll. “By using Xero plus ZenPayroll, businesses can save time and money, a winning combination.”

“We love both ZenPayroll and Xero for their flexibility and friendliness,” said Jared Hansen, CEO at Breezy. “We’ve been waiting for this integration and are excited to
