The National Association of Enrolled Agents and GetNetSet, LLC, have announced a partnership agreement through which the 11,000 members of the national tax preparer association can receive a discount professional website services.

GetNetSet specializes in creating and managing custom tax and accounting firm websites and has pricing starting at $29 per month. The websites are maintained by the company, and any time the tax or accounting firm needs changes they can use the unlimited free support to have a website technician make the changes. This frees up the professional from having to maintain the websites manually.

As part of the affinity partnership agreement, NAEA members will receive a 20% discount on website services provided by GetNetSet. NAEA members can log in to <http://www.naea.org/membership/member-resources/member-discounts> for more information.

“Partnering with the NAEA is natural fit.” said Chris Davis, President of GetNetSet. “NAEA members have voiced their interest in having more affordable access to effective website solutions and the NAEA has listened. We are proud to have been selected and look forward to helping NAEA members increase their efficiency and marketability through a professional accounting website.”

According to the 2010 Reader's Survey published by the CPA Technology Advisor, 54% of accounting firms state they still do not have a website. Websites have been increasingly utilized by accounting professionals to maintain a professional online image, attract new clients through search engines, upload and download files
