more,” said Mark Burnette, Partner in Security and Risk Services.

Originally from Nashville, Tennessee, Rollins obtained his Computer Science degree from Lane College and completed his MBA at Tennessee State University. He has Six Sigma Champion and Yellow Belt certifications, both of which demonstrate his ability to apply a data-driven approach and methodology to eliminating defects in any process.

In his free time, Rollins serves on the Board of Directors for the Middle TN Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA) Black Achievers Program and is Chief Rabban and Budget and Finance Committee Chairman for Hella Temple Shriners. He is a lover of music and a big supporter of the Davidson County Public Schools Music programs where he volunteers with multiple high schools, raising and donating funds annually for multiple marching band programs.
