to help young CPAs establish connections with their peers, exchange ideas and grow their careers.

Aug. 08, 2013

The American Institute of CPAs has announced the creation of an online community to help young CPAs establish connections with their peers, exchange ideas and grow their careers.

The Young CPA Network online community provides resources and content designed to empower and guide young CPAs along their professional journey. The community, hosted on AICPA's website allows AICPA members who have passed the CPA
