Big Four accounting, audit and consulting firm Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited (Deloitte) has been ranked number one globally by Kennedy Consulting Research and Advisory, based on revenue in the forensics and dispute advisory (F&DA) services sector.

In addition, the company was named a Vanguard leader in both forensic and investigative services and dispute advisory and analysis services for its depth and breadth of capabilities, in the Kennedy Forensics and Dispute Advisory Services report, 2013.

It is the second report Kennedy has issued, the first was issued in July 2010 which also ranked Deloitte number one in the F&DA space based on revenue. The report provides a detailed examination of client needs and drivers of F&DA spending and evaluates the strengths and limitations of a diverse set of service providers competing across the two sub-segments of the F&DA market: forensic investigation and dispute advisory and analysis.

“We are very proud that Kennedy has acknowledged Deloitte Forensic as number one in F&DA services for the second consecutive time,” said Tim Phillipps, DTTL Global Leader, Deloitte Forensic. “Deloitte’s clients operate in a global marketplace fraught with complex regulatory frameworks and business environments that create many crisis and challenges around fraud, corruption and financial crime. Deloitte has built a global network that harnesses Deloitte’s deep industry and technical skill with advanced analytical technology to help clients meet those challenges.”
