Aug. 27, 2013

ADP, a leading global provider payroll and human resources solutions, today announced its ADP Mobile Solutions app on the Android operating system (OS) has passed 300,000 downloads since its April launch.

The app is consistently listed in the Top Ten Free Business applications, with a strong 4 out of 5 star customer rating on Google Play. Available in over 37 countries, the ADP Mobile Solutions app has become increasingly popular as more and more employees seek easier access to the HR information they care about most and want to take action on quickly. The Android OS now powers approximately 80 percent of all smartphones worldwide, according to research firm International Data Corporation (IDC).

With built-in security and convenience, the ADP Mobile Solutions app gives employees all the tools needed to access their HR information. A user can view pay statements and benefits information, input and track time and attendance, review Flexible Spending Accounts (FSA) and retirement account information and download and print W-2 forms right from a mobile device.

“The ADP Mobile Solutions app is the easiest way for employees to access their payroll, time and benefits information at a moment’s notice no matter where they are in the world,” said Don Weinstein, senior vice president, product management at ADP. “Given the penetration of Android devices worldwide, it was critical for us to offer the app on this platform. The explosive growth in adoption proves this and we are constantly evaluating and adding functionality to the existing suite of features employees can take advantage of on their mobile devices.”

Today, more than 46,000 ADP clients totaling more than 1.28 million employee
