the successful launch of its external newsletter.

Sep. 09, 2013

KatzAbosch, a Maryland-based CPA, tax and consulting firm, recently announced the successful launch of its external newsletter. Based on its vision statement, "Create, grow, and protect client asset value," the firm's monthly publication is intended to provide helpful information to its clients and friends.

Each monthly newsletter will share information about the latest developments in areas such as taxes and business developments. Other subjects that will be covered in coming months include business strategy, financial happenings and advice.

"KatzAbosch has committed itself to making sure our clients receive expert help and guidance in regard to growing their businesses," said KatzAbosch Director of Marketing Graham Dodge. "We are very excited about this new venture, and with each issue, we are looking to provide the very best information for our clients. As certified public accountants, we feel it is our duty to make sure our clients are always in the know."

Founded in 1969, KatzAbosch serves the mid-Atlantic region and tax and accounting services including cost segregation studies, business valuations, litigation support, forensic accounting, technology solutions, estate planning and administration and personal financial planning. KatzAbosch also provides clients with extensive industry experience and proactive solutions.
