Filippo, has been re-elected by the firm partners into his third term as managing partner.

Oct. 16, 2013

John Sensiba, CPA, managing partner of the leading regional CPA firm, Sensiba San Filippo, has been re-elected by the firm partners into his third term as managing partner.

Sensiba has more than 20 years of accounting experience and began his career at SSF in 1994 as a tax manager. He was later promoted to tax partner in charge before being appointed to his first term as managing partner in 2008.

Sensiba has led the firm to significant market success and growth, in addition to adding several new practices and expanding their portfolio of services to their clients. In the past year, the firm has also been recognized as a “Best Place to Work” and as a “Healthiest Employer” in the San Francisco Bay Area. Sensiba was also recognized and selected by the leading online community, Glass Hammer, as one of the Men Who Get It, for 2011. In addition, he was nominated in 2011 for the E&Y Entrepreneur of the Year program.

Within the community, Sensiba has also been appointed as the Chairman of the Board of ValleyCare Health System and has been named to the Board of Innovation Tri-Valley.

“John is a natural leader and visionary, and has successfully led our firm over the previous two terms as Managing Partner. We all look forward to working alongside him as we continue to grow, to focus on providing rewarding career opportunities for our employees and delivering superior client service,” said Jerry Krause, Partner at Sensiba San Filippo.
