

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Companies to work for in the United States, the company's best ranking ever. In addition, the magazine also included Intuit on its list of Top 10 Perks.

Jan. 16, 2014

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Fortune Magazine has ranked Intuit as No. 8 in its just-released list of Best Companies to work for in the United States, the company's best ranking ever. In addition, the magazine also included Intuit on its list of Top 10 Perks.

The ranking marks Intuit's 13th consecutive appearance on the prestigious list. In addition, the company is one of just a handful of tech companies in the Silicon Valley to appear on the list for at least 13 years.

"Our longevity proves that we're building a durable company that is built to last," said CEO Brad Smith. "Year in and year out, our employees consistently rank us among the best of the best in a very competitive marketplace. Together, we're creating more than awesome products that improve our customers' lives, we're creating an awesome work environment where our employees can do the best work

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us work assignments.

Recognizing Intuit's baker's dozen achievement, here are 13 things you may not have known about this Silicon Valley stalwart.

1. Innovation pipeline: Intuit has generated more than $100 million in revenue from products that didn't exist just three years ago.
2. Two-pizza teams: Creative teams are encouraged to work in small groups, where a couple of pizzas are enough to feed everyone.
3. Fat wallets: Intuit personal finance products have helped families put an estimated $1,000 back in their pockets every year.
4. Payday!: One in 12 American workers gets paid through Intuit payroll.
5. Paying it forward (Part I): Intuit employees get four days off with pay every year to volunteer for philanthropic efforts.
6. Paying it forward (Part II): Intuit cash and in-kind contributions to communities totaled more than $54 million, while employees logged 10,000-plus volunteer hours.
7. Work-free zone: Some departments let new employees spend their first 30 days learning more about the company, with no specific work assignments.
8. Dreaming big: Employees are encouraged to spend 10 percent of their time pursuing ideas that interest them.
9. Helping others dream: The Love Our Local Business program helps make entrepreneurs' dreams come true, awarding 15 small businesses a $5,000 grant each quarter.
10. In the spotlight: Intuit budgets more than $12 million annually to recognize employees' outstanding performance.
11. Beyond borders: Intuit employs nearly 8,000 people around the world, with offices in five countries on four continents.

2. Be fit: Full-time employees get up to $650 per year to spend on fitness activities,

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved