Becker Professional Education Announces 2nd Annual Newton D. Becker Scholarship Program

The second annual Newton D. Becker Scholarship Program is now accepting applications. The scholarship benefits college students who are pursuing the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) credential, and will award more than $200,000 in financial assistance including 20 full CPA Exam Review scholarships (all four parts of the exam), each valued at $3,360, and additional scholarships valued at $1,680.

Becker Professional Education is a provider of professional education and is a part of DeVry Education Group.

Newton D. Becker founded the organization in 1957. He was deeply committed to helping students fulfill their accounting career goals and pioneered a fresh approach to prepare candidates for the CPA Exam. Newton passed away in 2012, and the scholarship program was created in his honor.

“We are pleased to offer students and professionals the opportunity to earn CPA Exam Review scholarships,” said John Roselli, president of Becker Professional Education. “The scholarship program allows us to carry on Newton’s legacy by helping bright, dedicated individuals succeed in their pursuit of the gold standard in the profession, the CPA credential.”

Scholarship applications can be submitted through Feb. 5, 2014. Scholarship
