It was the best of payroll processing times, it was the worst...well, you get the idea. Payroll used to be complex and tedious work, so much that many accounting firms stopped offering the service.

But new technology and integration functions mean that accountants and bookkeepers no longer have to put up with an 8-step, 2 + hour payroll process!

CPA Practice Advisor is hosting a free webcast eligible for 1 hour of CPE on Wednesday, January 29, 2014 at 2pm that looks at how accounting firms can take advantage of new tools to streamline payroll processing tasks and make the client service more productive and profitable for their firm.

All attendees will also be included in a drawing to win an iPad Mini.

The educational and fun webinar will focus on what's new in the automated time tracking world and why your clients will love you for sharing innovative tools that help them save money (2% gross payroll costs anyone?), gain valuable insights into their payroll, and protect them with government-approved audit trails.

The free CPE webcast is sponsored by TSheets!
