

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Maine has accepted the challenge.

Mar. 05, 2014

Could you ski for 24 hours straight, even for a great cause? An accounting firm in Maine has accepted the challenge.

The BerryDunn “Downhillers” team is skiing for 24 hours straight at the Downhill 24 to raise funds for WinterKids. The second annual Downhill 24 is a 24-hour (technically, 23 hours with the clock springing forward) team downhill ski race at Mt. Abram on March 8-9. WinterKids is a nonprofit dedicated to getting kids outside and active during several of the Maine seasons: “almost winter,” “winter,” and “still

Hello. It looks like you’re using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

WinterKids’ mission is to help kids develop healthy lifelong habits through outdoor winter activities. For 16 years, WinterKids has brought fun winter activity to over 100,000 Maine kids.

BerryDunn is a firm of CPAs and consultants providing financial and business expertise to organizations in New England and across the country.

Firm Management • Income Tax

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved