“The momentum we generated last year has carried over into 2014,” said Robert Sattin, President of TIAG. “These recent additions are evidence that accounting firms are pursuing high quality, multi-disciplinary, international relationships. TIAG provides our members and their clients with those relationships, but through our sister alliance of more than 145 independent law firms, TAGLaw, members of TIAG can deliver even more value to their clients. Combine these relationships with the number of other benefits and services our members receive, and you can confidently say TIAG members are truly part of something dynamic.”

TIAG is a part of TAG Alliances, which is comprised of three groups: TIAG (The International Accounting Group), TAGLaw and TAG-SP. TIAG is an international alliance of high quality, independent accounting firms. TAGLaw is a similar alliance of independent law firms, and TAG-SP is a complementary association of strategic business partners. Collectively, the TAG Alliances provide accounting, legal, financial and business support services on a worldwide scale. With approximately 15,000 professionals in 260 member firms, and 500 offices in over 90 countries, The TAG Alliances serve tens of thousands of clients from all industry and commercial sectors.
