The National Society of Accountants (NSA) 70th Annual Convention and Expo will be held August 19-22, 2015 at the Hyatt Regency Vancouver in Vancouver, British Columbia.

The event will draw accountants and tax professionals from across the United States and Canada, and offers continuing education and networking opportunities.

Leading industry speakers will address critical topics including ethics, practice management, accounting, and risk management, providing up to 14 hours of continuing professional education (CPE).

On August 20, the NSA Business Session will feature Karen Hawkins, who will shortly conclude a six-year stint as the Director of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Office of Professional Responsibility. Two leaders of the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) – NASBA Chairman Walter Davenport and NASBA President and CEO Ken Bishop – will also speak during the session. Other sessions that day include Estate Planning Using Trusts and The Continuing Evolution of
