Grant Thornton LLP, the U.S. member firm of Grant Thornton International Ltd, announced revenues of $1.45 billion for fiscal year 2015, which ended July 31, 2015. The figure is a record for the firm and represents a 6.9 percent increase over the previous fiscal year.

“Our financial results are a direct reflection of the value we’re providing to our clients,” said Mike McGuire, chief executive officer of Grant Thornton LLP. “When we come to the table with all our capabilities, offer solutions and deliver outstanding service quality, clients give us more of their business, and recommend us to others. This is how we’re growing our firm.”

Organic growth for Grant Thornton was strong across all businesses. All of the firm’s industry groups also grew in fiscal year 2015, with Consumer & Industrial Products (CIP), Energy and Financial Services seeing double-digit gains.

The 6.9 percent growth rate for total revenue eclipses that of fiscal year 2014, in
