

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Directors each year for the past six years—two of them as the Society's secretary/treasurer. He's also served as Finance Committee chair and Northeast Chapter president, as ...

Jun. 03, 2016

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

F. Michael Zovistoski, a partner at UHY LLP, has been named the 97th president of the New York State Society of CPAs (NYSSCPA). The ceremony took place on May 19 at the NYSSCPA's Foundation for Accounting Education (FAE) Moynihan Fund Gala, held at the Lighthouse at Chelsea Piers in New York City. His one-year term begins June 1.

An NYSSCPA member since 1987, Zovistoski has served on the Society's Board of

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

“The Society has welcomed non-CPAs into the membership for the past few years; however, these associate members had to be working under the supervision of a CPA,” Zovistoski said. “With this latest bylaws amendment, which was to align our membership categories with the types of professionals we see working in CPA firms more and more, that’s no longer a requirement. I would like to offer an invitation to all the bankers, lawyers, educators and alike ... to consider joining our family and become an associate member in the NYSSCPA.”

Non-CPA professionals with a bachelor’s degree, working full time for the government; nonprofits; or in financial, legal or banking services, are eligible to join as associate members; however, these new members cannot hold leadership positions or vote in Society elections.

Aside from increasing networking opportunities for CPA members, Zovistoski—an Albany certified public accountant and certified financial planner—sees potential in growing the NYSSCPA’s government affairs program, and increasing engagement with young CPA professionals through the Society’s NextGen program. The Moynihan Fund Gala – an event where the Society raised nearly $250,000 for FAE’s scholarships and its college readiness program for high school students that are underrepresented in the profession – is part of that initiative.

“This is the first time the NYSSCPA has done something on this scale and it wasn’t limited to New York CPAs; the guest list was a veritable ‘Who’s Who’ of the accounting profession,” he said. “It’s an exciting time to be a CPA, especially a CPA in New York.”

A native of Middle Granville, N.Y., Zovistoski grew up on a farm where his family planted and harvested blue spruce Christmas trees and tapped maple trees for syrup. He took a bookkeeping class in high school and decided he wanted to pursue a career in accounting.

Zovistoski attended Albany Business College and received a BBA from Siena College

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved