THE MICHIGAN ASSOCIATION OF CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The logo features a large, solid blue shape that resembles a stylized 'M' or a wide, shallow bowl. This shape is centered on a white background. Above the blue shape, the text 'THE MICHIGAN ASSOCIATION OF CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS' is written in a blue, sans-serif, all-caps font.

Four members of the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants are among those named Crain's 100 Most Influential Women in Michigan.

Crain's Detroit Business has periodically highlighted the top women making an impact as leaders in fields ranging from accounting to law to nonprofits. Crain's published a similar list in 1997, 2002 and 2007, focusing on Southeast Michigan. This year was its first statewide listing, winnowed from more than 300 nominees, according to the publication's website.

The honorees were recognized during a ceremony on Tuesday, June 21 at the Suburban Collection Showplace in Novi.
