Remember when the phrase, summer reading, was equated with light, mindless, carefree, enjoyable but forgettable – the ubiquitous beach reads with which we are confronted each year, even though most of us do not actually spend our summers at the beach?

Alas, even if busy accountants do find quiet beach time, they're usually catching up with email on their smart phones or engaging in some business-related reading that they didn't have time for while at their desks. Think what you will of that type of
