“We are excited to launch this free database,” commented Dr. Jennifer Mueller-Phillips, Vice Chair of the Auditing Section’s Research Committee, and KPMG Professor and Director of the Auburn University School of Accountancy. “It will ensure that practitioners have free access to the latest thinking and trends in audit. We strongly encourage auditors to visit the database and take advantage of this free tool.”

With more than 650 summaries available, and more posted weekly, www.AuditingResearchSummaries.org covers research on virtually every aspect of the audit profession, including the following:

- Standard Setting
- Client Acceptance and Continuance
- Auditor Selection and Auditor Changes
- Independence and Ethics
- Audit Team Composition
- Risk and Risk Management (including Fraud Risk)
- Internal Control
- Auditing Procedures – Nature, Timing and Extent
- Auditor Judgment
- Engagement Management
- Audit Quality and Quality Control
- Accountants’ Reports and Reporting
- Governance Corporate Matters
- International Matters
