Be it entrepreneurs, freelancers, or divisions of larger businesses, WeWork is empowering the new workforce to work from where they want, on their terms. Giving users the ability to book a local workspace, dedicated desk or private workspace, WeWork provides not only the space to launch and manage a business but the community and services.

With the launch of the WeWork Services Store, WeWork members can access more of what they need in the one place. Partnering with more than 100 top service providers, including Xero, Amazon Web Services, Salesforce, Lyft, Zendesk and Upwork, the store enables users to subscribe to business apps in one central location.

A new chapter in WeWork's evolution

Working with best-in-class providers across productivity, finance, human resources,

“The Services Store reinforces our commitment to providing businesses with the tools they need to create, collaborate and grow, and Xero is thrilled to be a core partner of this offering.”

From innovation in physical spaces, to enabling WeWork members to access SaaS products and services that ensure a seamless member experience and create new lines of business, the Services Store represents a new chapter in WeWork's evolution.

WeWork is a community company, committed to giving creators the tools they need to thrive – whether that is a collaborative physical workspace, a global community, or new access to essential services. At Xero, we're thrilled to be partnering with WeWork on this shared vision.
