The staff of SD Mayer & Associates, an accounting, technology and financial advisory services solutions provider, is changing out of business attire and rolling up their collective sleeves today to volunteer at the SF-Marin Food Bank. This annual community giving day is part of the firm's We Care service initiative.

"The firm was founded with the idea of investing in and giving back to the communities where we live and work," said Stephen D. Mayer, founder and managing partner of SD Mayer & Associates. "I'm proud of our staff's commitment to volunteer work and their enthusiasm for giving back to our local communities."

The SF-Marin Food Bank feeds 225,000 people each year. Thirty-thousand families receive healthy groceries at more than 260 pantries in the Bay Area. SD Mayer & Associates staff will sort produce and pack boxes that will be delivered to local pantries.

At the firm's founding, staff established the We Care initiative, a core pillar of SD Mayer's business philosophy, which translates to clients, the company and the community. Past community giving days have included landscape clean-up at the
