What peers, clients and friends say about David:

Dave is one of the new leaders who will steward the continued evolution of technology in accounting. He has been appointed to the Upstream Academy Board in 2000, named to Microsoft's U.S. Partner Advisory Council in 2004, and has served on Microsoft Dynamics SL – Partner Advisory Board since 2000. Dave is excited not only about the benefits technology can bring to an organization financially, but also the potential to impact the quality of life of the employees. Life balance is a key to success in Dave's eyes, and using technology can help to make that possible. He is an exemplary community member volunteering countless hours as well as a progressive technology thinker.

What technology or business process does David see affecting the tax and accounting profession in the next five years?

"We are seeing the effects of a global economy. Geography will not limit who we serve. We are going to see more and more electronic transmission and storage of data. With real-time data and reporting, you will see additional
