

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

By John Anderson, CPA, CITP, CIA, MSA

The bad guys keep coming up with new malicious programs to try to access your and your clients's information, and that means it is more important than ever to keep on top of these issues. John gives some practical advice on what you can do to avoid the pitfalls of JavaScript hacking.

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us