PLEASANTON, CA – BQE Software today announced a partnership with The Sleeter Group, a leading provider of accounting technology consulting services to manage its growing BillQuick® Advisors Network. BillQuick provides highly customizable and easy-to-use time & expense tracking, project management and invoice automation. Industry-specific versions of BillQuick are available for accountants and CPAs, architects and engineers, computer consultants and attorneys; markets in which The Sleeter Group already has substantial presence. The Sleeter Group brings a network of more than 650 certified accounting software experts, crossing many categories from implementation and training to application integration services and client support.

“We saw an opportunity to leverage the leading time billing & project management solution to satisfy a growing need,” said Doug Sleeter, CEO of The Sleeter Group. “BillQuick is designed to meet the needs of a broad group of professional services firms. BillQuick’s seamless integration with popular accounting software packages like QuickBooks, Peachtree Accounting and Microsoft Small Business Accounting is among the best I’ve ever seen.” Sleeter added.

BillQuick empowers professional services firms with increased efficiency. Some key features:

- Project control using phases and % complete calculations.
