IRS Section 7216 discussion (Notes courtesy of Randy Johnston)

Guest: Steven Ladd, CEO of Copanion, Inc. makers of GruntWorx

The rule was put in force by the IRS on January 3, 2008 as the second link below will show. Comments to the IRS and Treasury Department are due by 4/7/2008.

Foreign outsourcing is not prohibited by the final regulations, which permit the disclosure of tax return information outside of the United States if the taxpayer consents to such disclosure. However, tax preparers who outsource (1040 series returns) to foreign countries will be required to:

â€¢ Obtain written consent from the tax payer in advance.

â€¢ Mask social security numbers on both the tax return software and source documents.

The second bullet is difficult at best in most document management systems and tax
