

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Mar. 25, 2009

Intuit has announced the selection of judges for its Power to Get More Done initiative, a program that gives accounting professionals looking to start new firms or grow existing practices the chance to win $10,000 in cash and up to $10,000 in products and services. Grants totaling up to $200,000 will be awarded to 10 deserving professionals and firms from May through July 2009. The deadline for applying for the grants is April 30; more information is available at <http://accountant.intuit.com/GetMoreDone>.

Among the seven judges selected to make the award decisions is Randy Johnston, a well-known thought leader within the profession and a long-time columnist for The CPA Technology Advisor. Johnston is executive vice president and partner of K2 Enterprises and Network Management Group, Inc. The nationally recognized educator and consultant has more than 30 years experience in strategic technology planning, systems and network integration, accounting software selection, business development and management, disaster recovery and contingency planning, and process engineering.

Others named to the panel of judges are consultant L. Gary Boomer, CPA; Astrid M. Arola, CPA and member of the National Society of Accountants; Sarah A. Fahey, EA; Dave Levine, EA; Steve Blundell, CPA; and Georg Gerstenfeld, VP of marketing for Intuit's Accounting Professionals Division.

Intuit also announced co-sponsors of the Power to Get More Done program, including the National Society of Accountants, the National Association of Enrolled

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved