LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19, 2009 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) — BQE Software Inc. has announced the integration of its flagship BillQuick system with the Australian version of QuickBooks Pro, Premier and Enterprise. BillQuick is designed to help professional service firms simplify time and expense tracking, project management and invoicing.

The addition of the QuickBooks Australia integration brings BillQuick's award-winning project management and reporting features to small and mid-sized businesses in Australia and New Zealand. Industry-specific versions are available for architects and engineers, IT consultants, attorneys and accountants. BillQuick includes support for Australia specific accounting standards, GST and other regional and international practices.

"This will be a welcome addition for many Australian businesses because it fills a need that many professional firms have," said Shaz Hughes, the owner of Accounted 4 Bookkeeping Services in the Perth suburb of Ballajura, Australia. "QuickBooks is a great system, but like most 'all-rounder' accounting programs it can be limited in features for specific types of firms."

With more than 160,000 business users worldwide, BillQuick has been honoured with perfect 5-star reviews by several technology and professional media outlets, including CNET and The CPA Technology Advisor.

Although its integration with the Australian versions of QuickBooks is integration with QuickBooks," he said. "This new addition extends the benefits of BillQuick's easy to use and highly customizable system to organizations of any size, from 10-20 professional staff, to more than a thousand."

BQE Software maintains offices in Sydney, which include local sales, support and training centres.
