that actuaries have the "best job in America." The accounting profession was cited as the 9th "best job."

The study, on CareerCast's website, rated professions on several factors, including physical demands, work environment, income, stress and hiring outlook.

The related fields of financial planning and bookkeeping came in at 17 and 24, respectively.

According to CareerCast, the "2010 Jobs Rated rankings serve as a guide for anyone trying to get a clearer picture of employment in an uncertain time. Whether you're graduating from college, have recently found yourself downsized or just can't stand the thought of going back to the grind for one more day..."
