Spector 360 is the most advanced company-wide employee monitoring and filtering tool available today. It records all Web sites visited, emails sent and received, chats and IMs, keystrokes typed, files transferred, documents printed, and applications run. Through a first-of-its-kind surveillance camera-like recording tool, Spector 360 can also show in exact visual detail what an employee does, every step of the way.

With more than 30 pre-defined web filtering categories, Spector 360 gives you the
