The screenshot shows a software window titled 'Preparation' with a green checkmark icon in the top right corner. On the left side, there is a sidebar with a list of steps: 'Step 1: Enter the information', 'Step 2: Enter the information to be used', 'Step 3: Enter the information to be used', and 'Step 4: Enter the information to be used'. Below these steps are several input fields and buttons. The main area of the window contains a large table with multiple columns and rows, likely for entering financial data. At the bottom right, there is a 'Print' button. The interface appears to be a professional accounting or tax preparation software.

Distributions from Pensions, Annuities, Retirement Plans, IRAs, or Insurance Contracts

A Form 1099-R is generally used to report designated distributions of $10 or more from pensions, annuities, profit-sharing and retirement plans, IRAs, and insurance contracts.
