Winooski, VT – April 12, 2011 – CPA Site Solutions, a provider of CPA websites, announced they now include one free Continuing Professional Education (CPE) course and 30% off additional CPE courses with each of their website packages.

That's a value of up to 38 credits and $277 for the free course and a savings of $92 for each course thereafter.

“With tax season coming to a close, we know accountants will soon be concerned with fulfilling their CPE requirements for the year,” commented Brian O’Connell, President of CPA Site Solutions. “We’re delighted to provide our clients significant savings in this area.”

All CPA Site Solutions clients are eligible for the free course and the discount, O’Connell stressed.

Clients choose which course they want to take for free, with topics ranging from “The Ultimate Guide to Retirement Planning from a Tax Perspective” to “Business Taxation,” and the available credits ranging from 4 to 38.

Each course is offered online and in PDF version, and all courses are available for up to 5 years. The course setup allows you to save your place so you can progress at your own pace. All courses are fully searchable in both online and PDF versions.

All available courses meet or exceed state and NASBA/AICPA standards.
