

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

>> Register for this FREE webcast on Paperless Workpapers <<

Historically, in traditional paper-based workpapers, accountants have had the flexibility of organizing workpapers into binders in any order that makes sense. Some workpapers come from Excel or Word files printed to paper and some are hard copies provided by clients. In going paperless, accountants have lost much of this flexibility. Most document management systems and engagement packages do not allow you to organize items at anything below the file level. Although an Excel file might have numerous sheets, it can only be organized and referenced at the file level.

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

➤ Register for this FREE webcast on Paperless workpapers ➤

Receive 1 hour of free CPE credit for participating in this live webcast.

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved